Carleton Cakes was brought to life in 1994 by baking masterminds Doreen and Wilfred Carleton in Cootehill, County Cavan. Former home economics teacher Doreen is the star baker – she works tirelessly to create delectable recipes to give you that “mmm...” feeling. Wilfred focuses on the commercial side, and it has taken him over 20 years in business to perfect the art of “yes dear”. Together the couple have grown the company from small beginnings to a large-scale bakery, now employing over 100 superheroes, all playing their part to ensure that each sweet treat is baked with pure magic.

Why Us

We work with our lovely customers to create a scrumptious recipe which is then produced to their desired specification and packaging.

Our grade-AA* BRC accreditation reflects the hard work and commitment that our busy technical guys and gals carry out to ensure the bakery is running efficiently while maintaining the highest professional standard that the industry demands.
