Established in 1986, Glenhaven Foods is Ireland's largest producer of value-added, frozen, coated chicken products. The company is 100% Irish-owned and employs 100 people at its Arklow site. Turnover is €35m, with exports accounting for approximately 80%.

Glenhaven Foods is a private label supplier to major Irish and UK retail multiples and has two fully integrated continuous coating lines with a capacity of 300 tonnes per week.

Glenhaven Foods has the capabilities to produce carton products and bagged products using its modern high-speed lines, while the company's established HACCP and BRC Global Standard ensures a strong food safety environment.

Why Us

Glenhaven Foods has a proven track record in sustainability, capacity, commitment, and a wealth of experience in its field. It also provides food safety assurance and a high-quality end product.
