Irish Country Meats is Europe's leading lamb processor, with a reputation for product quality, innovation and customer service across the continent.

The company operates two fully integrated processing activities on the East Coast, Ireland's prime sheep-producing region.

Irish Country Meats produces and markets a full range of sheep meat products, from traditional carcass to innovative new ready-to-cook formats.

Its philosophy of specialisation provides a competitive advantage to customers through revolutionary ongoing NPD and creative product presentation supported by consumer brands.

Why Us

From farm to plate, the company invests in the standards, processes, training, product development and delivery methods necessary to meet its objective - to be the best at what it does.

Irish Country Meats' marketing philosophy is based on working in close partnership with key customers in individual markets. This partnership approach promotes the sharing of information in an open and constructive manner, resulting in a more customer focused, cost-effective delivery of product in a dynamic and competitive marketplace.

Close liaison with its customer base has allowed Irish Country Meats to streamline its business, removing unnecessary costs and increasing efficiencies while developing an extensive understanding of evolving consumer needs and market trends.
