Dawn Farms is a B2B company and is Europe's leading dedicated multi-species cooked protein company.

They also offer the most comprehensive range of fermented and dried sausage products (pepperoni, salami and chorizo) for the pizza, sandwich, snack and prepared meal sectors. Their extensive product range is further complemented by a growing selection of plant-based cooked protein options under our Plant Deli brand to meet today's developing consumer trends.

They are a family company with a global reach, exporting to over 44 international markets. They are proud to supply many of the world's most loved food brands in retail and QSR/fast casual restaurants from our state-of-the-art manufacturing facilities in Ireland, Germany and the U.K.

Why Us

As the preferred supplier to the world's leading foodservice/QSR brands and food manufacturers in the pizza, sandwich and ready meal categories, customers know they are getting the best when they source from Dawn Farms. We protect our customer's brand through a forensic approach to food safety and unrivalled investment and expertise in the science of cooked protein for our served markets & customers built over 36 years.
