Healy Group is a global solutions-driven distributor of high-quality food ingredients, ingredient blends, raw materials and nutraceuticals.

Specialising in a wide range of ingredients and unique blends, the company works closely with its partners and customers to deliver trusted quality, dedicated technical support and innovative, bespoke solutions.

The customers' needs are Healy Group's primary focus when sourcing and crafting its range, from allergen-free to nutritionally-enriched, low salt and sugar to clean label products.

Why Us

The Healy Group is an Irish family-run business operating on a global scale, with expert knowledge in ingredients and blends, as well as dedicated technical assistance.

The company specialises a wide variety of functional blends, including gluten-free, protein and fibre enrichment, e-number replacement, phosphate replacement, sugar and salt reduction, and nutritional enrichment.
