Kepak is a family-owned, future-facing company. Founded in 1966, it is trusted by its dedicated suppliers and customers to produce quality meats, nutritious innovation and great tasting products.

Kepak has grown from a family-run butcher shop on Dublin's Francis Street to an internationally operating, multifaceted food innovator.

Why Us

Kepak has over 30 years of expertise in the European Foodservice market, we understand both the challenges and opportunities that operators face everyday. In our Foodservice Centre of Excellence and Innovation operators can experience the user-journey, from branding to cooking and preparation, to the serving and best of all - the tasting.

The Big Al's Food Solutions brand offers a range of products to suit a variety of foodservice outlets that deliver on taste, quality, convenience. The fully cooked range is flame grilled on the biggest BBQ facility in Europe and is an ideal solution for businesses with limited cooking resources.

All of our products are made with meats from farms we trust and are fully traceable from farm to fork.
